

RouteFlow Indiana Deployment

Overview

RouteFlow, is an open source project to provide virtualized IP routing services over OpenFlow enabled hardware.

Design

Deployment

The Indiana RouteFlow Deployment demonstrates a simulated deployment with both eBGP and OSPF protocols. The deployment consists of a single Pronto 3780 running OpenVSwitch. The switch is divided into 4 virtual bridges with ports connected by physical cables.

Visualization

